

Publications

GRAVIS has a deep belief in disseminating information about its experiences and developmental issues among a wide range of readers. Developing publications based on research studies and documentation of various projects is an ongoing activity at GRAVIS. With the help of the Thar Desert communities, GRAVIS team, researchers and volunteers, GRAVIS till date has worked over 160 documents and research studies. Till date, over 50 documents have been published in the form of books and booklets. GRAVIS publications reach the beneficiary community, government departments, donor agencies and policy makers. Several of GRAVIS publications have been placed in international libraries including the Library of Congress in the US. Click here to get the list of the printed books
